Saint Athanasius

ORTHODOX CHURCH

Sunday, October 8, 2017

Today's Readings: 2 Corinthians 9:6-11 Luke 7:11-16

Thank you for sharing Divine Liturgy with us today! Please participate at your comfort level. Greeters/Doorkeepers will be happy to answer your questions and provide service booklets to help you follow the service. Note: Holy Communion is open to all baptized Orthodox Christians who have observed the fasting requirements, had recent confession, and are at peace with neighbors.

Orthodox Campus Fellowship (OCF) is in full-swing at UK. Students meet each Tuesday at 6:30pm in the St. Augustine Episcopal Student Center. The group welcomes all local college students for the singing of the Paraklesis, a reflection with one of our local clergy, and fellowship time (often coffee or desserts) afterwards.

Vespers on Wednesday at 6:30pm. Our weekly catechesis will follow at 7:20pm with Fr. Justin teaching from These Truths We Hold. In part 3, he will walk through the structure of the church building itself, discuss the details of the interior of the church, and explain the rich symbolism of the worship that takes place inside the structure. Everyone is welcome!

Church Women United are called “To Agree to Differ, To Resolve to Love, To Unite to Serve.” Their next meeting will be Tuesday morning October 10 at Woodland Christian Church in Lexington. For more information about this diverse group of women and their mission, contact Dee Reynolds <deereynolds2015@gmail.com>.

Youth Group Church Visit Next Sunday, October 15

Youth and leaders should plan to meet at 5pm at St. Athanasius. Stay tuned for more information via email from Sarah Holiday.

Lifetouch Photography will be in the parish hall on Friday/Saturday, November 10 & 11 to take photographs for a new parish directory. Also, you will have the opportunity to order portrait greeting cards in time to share with family and friends for Christmas.

Their new program includes a mobile directory and the directory can easily be updated. Mary Cook has volunteered to coordinate this event and will soon be announcing how to sign up for an appointment time. Each family photographed will receive a free 8x10 photograph.

Our Telos Project Group (focusing on the church's efforts to reach 20-something adults) will meet this Saturday, the 14th, at 11am at the church. At noon, our local meeting will participate in a larger Telos Webinar.

Special Projects Planned for our next Gardening Day

1. Prepare ground and plant 8 redbud trees that a friend of our parish, Nancy Holloway, wants to donate.
2. Move some of the small evergreen trees (before they get any larger) that are growing too close together in the island in the parking lot.
3. Remove dead flower plants. “A job even children can help with.”

The first two projects cannot be done without some “muscle power” !! Strong young people are needed to help dig holes for the new trees and move the existing ones. Please bring shovels. Contact Mary Bradshaw if you are able to help: mary.bradshaw81@gmail.com or 859-361-4371. Our faithful committee (Mary, Ellie, Tanya, Linda) meet at 8:30am to begin the morning with prayer, but please come and stay as your schedule permits. The final work day for this year will be Nov. 11.

Visitor’s Sunday is only 3 weeks away! October 29
