Protecting Saint of Russia – Sergius of Radonezh

In 1380, Prince Dmitry Donskoy of Moscow asked the abbot's blessing on his struggle against the Tartars and Mongols from the East and when he did the Russians were victorious at the decisive Battle of Kulikovo (1380). Because of this Sergius was hailed as the protecting saint of Russia.

Welcome to our Weekend Cycle of Services on this
4th Sunday after Pentecost – July 5, 2020

Relics of Venerable Sergius of Radonezh

As July begins, we announce our new “Open Door Plan” so that no one will be turned away who wants to attend service. All services are “open attendance” with the exception that for Sunday Liturgy teams will rotate attending in the nave/parish hall. This weekend Team Paul [parishioners with last name N-Z] will be praying in the nave and Team Peter [parishioners with last name A-M] will be in parish hall. All parishioners will have the opportunity to receive the Eucharist. PLEASE NOTE: HOLY COMMUNION IS ONLY GIVEN TO ORTHODOX CHRISTIANS WHO HAVE KEPT FAST, MADE RECENT CONFESSION, AND ARE AT PEACE WITH NEIGHBORS.

Today we sing “Many Years” to those with July anniversaries, birthdays, and namesdays. July prayer lists with these dates are on the credenza.

Reminder: Fr. Justin is out of town visiting with relatives July 6-10. Please contact Deacon Simeon for any pastoral emergencies.

Wednesday Vespers will be led by Dcn. Simeon. No confessions, no class.

Primary Services [Wednesday Vespers, Saturday Vigil, Sunday Liturgy] will continue to be livestreamed on our St. Athanasius YouTube channel.

A Note from Zoe: Dr. David Bradshaw has graciously agreed to offer an online book discussion on "The Life of St. Anthony." These discussions will be on July 7th, July 14th, and July 21st and will be held on Tuesday nights from 7:30-8:30pm via Zoom. The discussion is open to the whole parish and we are offering free books for YAs (college age through age 30)! If you have questions or if you are a YA and would like a free book for the discussion please contact Zoe Kaylor. We hope to see you then!

Our Greeters help to make sure we all are practicing safety protocols by reminding us to observe the following considerations.

- ★Do not enter if:
 - 1) you are a medical professional caring directly for COVID patients;
 - 2) you have been exposed to COVID;
 - 3) you are caring for someone with COVID;
 - 4) you have any flu-like symptoms.
- ★Wash hands upon entering and wear mask.
- ★Respect the distancing dots that are on the floors.
- ★Volunteer to help clean/sanitize after each service.

Next Sunday, we will have a special commemoration for St. Elizabeth the New Martyr. She is the patron saint of the women’s sisterhood at St. Athanasius. Her feast day is July 18, but since Fr. Justin will be out of town that weekend, it was agreed to move the commemoration to Sunday, July 12.

The St. Elizabeth Sisterhood is honoring St. Elizabeth the New Martyr this month by collecting donations for Chrysalis House, a refuge for women seeking treatment for alcohol and drug addiction. Items needed: diapers and wipes, formula, hygiene products, twin sheets and pillows. Please put donated items in the designated box at church by Friday, July 31. Thank you!

Prison Ministry Awareness Sunday is July 26, 2020
You can be involved by praying, giving, and volunteering!
